

I. C. C. GIVES NINETY-SIX HOUR FREIGHT CREDIT

Drastic Law Forbidding Any Time Or Bills Modified.

Railroads may grant shippers 96 hours after the delivery of freight to pay freight charges after July 1, according to rules announced by the interstate commerce commission, in response to the urgent appeal of shippers for concessions from stringent regulations of the act of 1920 providing that on and after July 1 payment for all freight charges shall be on a strictly cash basis, except under such rules as the commission may prescribe.

J. H. Townsend, of the Hardwood Traffic association, was active in urging modifications of the cash basis provisions of the transportation act before the commission. Many other organizations appealed for concessions.

The commission provides that where retention of freight by the carrier until charges have been paid will retard prompt delivery and prompt release of equipment or station facilities, the carrier upon taking precautions deemed sufficient to insure payment of tariff charges may relinquish possession of the freight in advance of payment, and extend credit to the shipper for 96 hours, to be computed from the first 4 p.m. following presentation of the freight bill by the carrier.

Carriers are to present bills not later than the first 4 p.m. following delivery of freight, except where information necessary to compute the tariff charges is not available at the delivery point, in which case the bill must be presented not later than the first 4 p.m. following the day when the necessary information is received.

Where shippers elect to have freight bills presented by mail, the time of mailing by carrier shall be deemed the time of presentation. Shippers may make payment by valid check, draft or money order, satisfactory to the carrier, by mail within the 96-hour period. In case of dispute as to the time of mailing freight bill or remittance, the postmark shall be accepted as showing the time. Sundays and legal holidays, other than Saturday half holidays, may be excluded from computation of the credit period.

Credit is to be extended only when necessary, and carriers are to work out detailed instructions for guidance of agents.

14 WOUNDS CUT 14 YEARS FROM TERM

PHILADELPHIA, June 17.—An excellent record made by Anthony Telensky while serving overseas during the war saved him yesterday from a prison term for raising $10 notes to $20. The prisoner was wounded 14 times and, in imposing sentence, Judge Thomson deducted a year for each wound. He was given one year in federal prison at Atlanta. The judge told the defendant his offense called for the maximum sentence of 15 years, but that he could not overlook his fine record.

Telensky is an unaturalized Russian and enlisted in a New England regiment shortly after war was declared by this country.

Giant Negro Tries Hand At Stealing Cows; Is Arrested

Labor at $1.50 a day was too arduous for Henry Cole, negro, 5 feet 3 inches tall, and weighing about 225. Henry decided leave camp work was too much for his constitution, so he tried his hand at cow theft. He was making a splendid start in his new profession, having a herd of two heifers, when Deputy Sheriff W. E. Goswick and Durward King put a stop to his live stock operations Thursday. Henry now is in jail.

Leading the two heifers, Henry stopped off at the Star Feed company on North Second street early Thursday. He offered to sell the two cows for $60. The low price startled the proprietor, who telephoned the sheriff's office.

When the deputies arrived Henry was seated on a barrel, swinging a pair of feet encased in No. 14 shoes, which had been cut open to make them large enough. He claimed ownership of the cattle until a breathless negro arrived on the scene and demanded that Henry be arrested. The negro identified one cow as his property.

Henry gave his age as 30, and his home as Covington, Ga. He admitted the theft.

BUILDING ACTIVITY SHOWN MUCH LARGER

Building activity for the first four months of 1920 was two and one-half times greater than that of the same period last year, according to a report submitted to the members of the Industrial section of the Chamber of Commerce by Mark Penton, industrial commissioner, late Wednesday.

So far this year, it was reported that 686 building permits had been issued for a total expenditure of $3,046,915, against 608 permits during the same period in 1919; for an expenditure of $1,222,528.

DEMAND FOR COAL WILL EXCEED SUPPLY

Production of coal this summer amounts to only about 70 per cent of the demand, due to many complex causes over which the operators have no control, such as the car shortage, shorter working hours and heavy export demand, according to Frank N. Fisher, president of the Galloway Coal company. This condition is general all over the country he says, the summer demand being fully one third greater than the mines are producing.

Present indications are that coal for any purpose will be hard to get next winter, and Mr. Fisher advises those who can get delivery now to buy at once.

On a Hot Day the CHALMERS Runs Cool with Hot Spot and Ram's-horn

The reason the Chalmers runs cool on a hot day is the very same reason a Chalmers starts quickly and runs smoothly on a cold day. Service records show no complaints of overheating in summer.

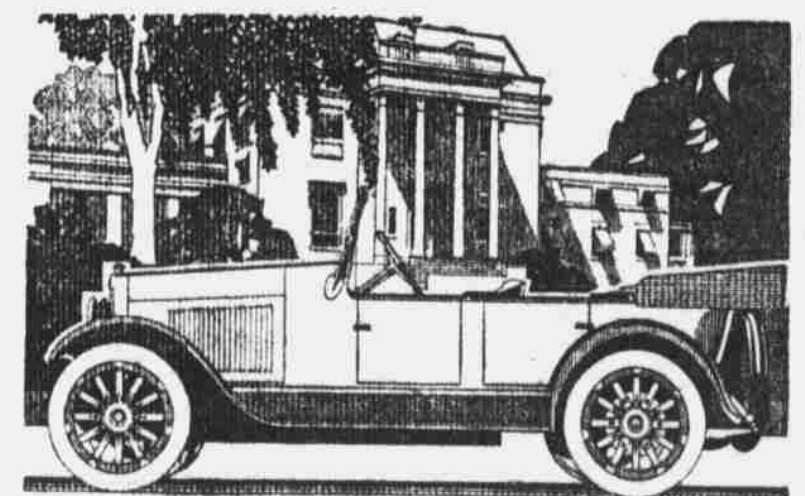

Such trouble in other cars comes from unevenness of the charges, "improperly digested fuel," and other matters often attributed to the raw, heavy, inferior gasoline you buy today.

Hot Spot transforms such "gas" into a "fine vapor cloud," just right for quick combustion.

Ram's-horn hurries it at a velocity of 100 miles an hour through "easy air bends" to the cylinders.

Thus follow power results that are smooth and even; and notably absent are those troubles that cause an engine to overheat, or burned bearings, or scored cylinders, or frequently fouled spark plugs and the like.

Engage a Chalmers owner in conversation about his car. He will tell you Chalmers is one of the few great cars of the world.
